

Lights, CAM, Action!

Newsletter

EDUCATION

Green Wave Sports are celebrating senior nights, to congratulate outgoing seniors on their years of commitment to Abington athletics. Congratulations to the class of '24.

The Buzz: Town Moderator Shawn Reilly interviews Green Wave athletes about their accomplishments.

Senoritis: Abington CAM senior interns discuss college selection, Abington High School memories and thoughts about what the future may bring.

Events: Prom, Graduation, Concerts, Open Mics, and more!

Visit "Education" Channel

PUBLIC

The Gig Show: Jim Dorman and Dan Cody provide thoughtful interviews and lively musical performances with a variety of artists.

Uh-Oh Politics: Ian Deming & Jared Valenzola anxiously cover national politics.

Abington COPES Moment: conversations around addiction and recovery, hosted by Mellissa Cook and Jeff Chasen.

Abington Muster: USMC Veteran Travis Partington invites guests to tell veteran stories.

Council on Aging: hosts events for seniors (check out the recent Kentucky Derby party)

Church Services: Premiere every Sunday at 9:00 AM

Community Chat & Author Talk: Interviews hosted by Kevin Tocci

Visit "Public" Channel

GOVERNMENT

Town Meeting: April 1

Election Day Results: April 27

Board of Selectmen: Live every other Monday night

Municipal Meetings: Check Abington's town website for details

Visit "Government" Channel

Thanks to our fun hosts, excellent content, and word of mouth, we're quickly approaching 1000 downloads on the Abington CAM Podcast Network. We have shows that cover everything from Taylor Swift to the Boston Celtics, to the Lord of the Rings, to wood imps. Tune in, subscribe, and let us know what podcasts you want to hear more of.

Visit "The Abington CAM Podcast Network"

Sequels 2: Rise of the Franchise, continues to grow, with downloads in multiple countries and continents! Thank you to our dedicated listeners in Nigeria, Poland, and Indonesia (as well as Abington, Massachusetts). Shout out to Kung Fu Panda 4: Po is Afraid, the first episode on the podcast network to reach 100 downloads!

In this comedy podcast, writers Ian Deming, Sam Purdell, and Spencer Sapienza plot out a new entry in a film franchise, with special guests including comedians, actors, writers, video game artists, and authors. New episodes are available every other Monday.

AHS senior James Madden and Green Wave coach Bud Madden are covering all things basketball: March Madness, the WNBA finals, and most recently, following the Celtics through the NBA playoffs. Also, catch "The Madden Report" on Youtube and abingtoncam.tv

The Mid Mid-Afternoon Show and Podcast are getting to the bottom of the most important questions: Where is Bigfoot? Check out these reviews from our loyal listeners:

- "Ew, you're still doing that?"
- "Mike and Chris are both common names"
- "I think I'm lost. How to I get to the baseball field from here?"

Do you have the next great podcast idea? Do you have a voice for radio? Do you have an unusual area of expertise, or knowledge that you want to share with the community? Visit abingtoncam.tv to learn more!

Board of Directors

Lisa A. Bezanson- President

Robert F. Molloy III- Treasurer

Peter L. Walters- Director

Jessica M. Johnson- Director

ACAM Staff

Kevin Tocci- Executive Director

Ian Deming- Lead Producer

David Bowen- Producer

Matt Lyons- Producer

Matt Nelson- Producer

Paul Watson- Producer

ACAM Interns

Aiden Calcano Nathan Calcano Drew Flaherty Gabe Garcia
Justin Feterowski Jameson Gagnon Liam Mennella Bekah Salah

Congratulations to our soon to be AHS graduates: Quin Graham, Jill Groom, James Madden, Stephen Madden, Mike O'Leary, Chris Pinola, and Jack Regan. You can see the class of '24 on Senioritis, where they discuss their college selections, plans for the future, and more!

If you are interested in internship opportunities with ACAM, click here!

ABINGTON MIDDLE SCHOOL 4TH ANNUAL FILM CAMP

First Session

July
9, 10, 11
16, 17, 18

Write, Act, Direct, &
Edit Your Own
Professional Looking
Short Film

Second Session

July
22, 23, 24
29, 30, 31

Open to Abington
Students Grades 5-8

Abington CAM
201 Gliniewicz Way
Abington, MA, 02351
Abingtoncam.tv

ABINGTON

GREEN WAVE

Our "Eyes in the Air" camera setup allows us to film at a higher vantage point, capturing more Green Wave action. Congratulations to Johnny Halpin and Hunter Grafton for recently achieving 300 and 200 points, respectively.

Tune in to see select baseball and softball games with score graphics and commentary. Check out last year's coverage of the Baseball championship game at Polar Park, with commentary from Matt Nelson and Aiden O'Donnell.

The Girls Varsity Softball team is performing incredibly, with a 16-1 record, with high scoring games, and a number of great home runs. Best of luck to the team in the playoff season.

Tennis singles and doubles are located directly across from the Abington CAM studio. While pickleball hasn't made it into Green Wave Sports yet, the tennis team has had strong matches, even in the rain.

Abington has hosted the 1st Inaugural Ultimate Tournament with 8 schools meeting at Abington High School to compete in several rounds of Ultimate Frisbee. Green Wave won the championship, and continue to crush it on the field.

Volunteer Today

We are able to produce this new content and provide local coverage because of the assistance of our interns and volunteers. We have training available at our studio for anyone who is passionate about the community and wants to be a part of the Abington CAM team. We want to create content that speaks to your interests, and the interests of the Abington community. If you have an idea for a show that you want to see, want to work on, or want to create, we would love to hear from you.

Visit us at abingtoncam.tv and become a member today!

