

Abington

CAM

Lights, CAM, Action!

Newsletter

EDUCATION

Fall Sports were a big hit in Green Wave Nation, especially football, where head coach Jim Kelliher finished his 50th and final year as head coach for the Green Wave. We've posted tributes and highlights of Coach Kelliher's long storied career on the Education Channel.

Winter Sports are in full swing with Basketball and Hockey regularly covered and livestreamed by Abington CAM. Abington CAM is proud to provide well-produced coverage, with fantastic scoreboard graphics and colorful commentary from Green Wavers like James Madden, Matt Nelson, Shawn Reilly, Chris Nagle, Kevin Whalen, Jim Dorman, and Rick Collins.

Visit "Education" Channel

PUBLIC

Abington Celebrates has worked to create lively and memorable town events for the holidays. Oktoberfest celebrated all things fall: the spooky season, pumpkins, costumes, music, and more. Most recently, Abington Celebrates celebrated Christmas at Island Grove, with Santa, Buddy the Elf, The Grinch, and a bunch of businesses, organizations, and clubs. The event had hay rides, dance numbers, and the lighting of the tree, initiated by guest of honor, Coach Kelliher.

With the holidays came the annual holiday concerts, filmed in Abington High School's auditorium, and produced from our studio by our hardworking interns. Check out their work on ACAM's YouTube channel.

Visit "Public" Channel

GOVERNMENT

Following the Town Meeting on October 14, Abington voted to approve construction of a new DPW and Fire Station. Abington also approved construction of a military base in the tri-town area, along with Rockland and Weymouth.

New meeting groups, such as The Affordable Housing Trust, The Opioid Settlement Fund, and the DPW Building Committee also have coverage provided by Abington CAM. You can find meeting times listed at Town Hall and at abingtonma.gov

Visit "Government" Channel

We have reclaimed what was once an office supply room and turned it into Abington CAM's state of the art podcast studio, where several new & exciting podcasts are being recorded. Check it out for yourself at our video studio!

Visit "The Abington CAM Podcast Network"

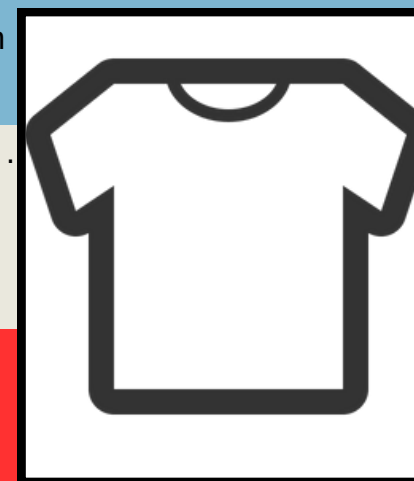

Everyone's favorite film comedy podcast, Sequels 2 (Colon) Rise of the Franchise, continues through the holiday season. This podcast, Hosted by Ian Deming, Sam Purdell, and Spencer Sapienza, involves a fun brainstorm session to write a perfect sequel to a film franchise. Most recently, the hosts have developed holiday sequels to Home Alone and Gary Marshall's "Holiday Trilogy". Catch new episodes, every other Friday, wherever you get your podcasts.

The Mid Mid Afternoon Show wasn't satisfied with conquering the video medium, so now it has included a podcast companion show. Join co-hosts Mike O'Leary and Chris Pinola as they spin the wheel and see where it lands!

Coming Soon: The White Shirt Podcast from new interns Drew, Aiden, and Nathan, discussing their freshman year, and similar shirts.

Are you concerned about the future of national politics? Do you feel jaded, like nothing will change? Do you feel like things might change in a bad and/or fascist way?

Tune in to "Uh-Oh! Politics." where Jared Valenzola and Ian Deming discuss current events, and the 2024 presidential race.

Do you have the next great podcast idea? Do you have a voice for radio? Do you have an unusual area of expertise, or knowledge that you want to share with the community? Visit abingtoncam.tv to learn more!

Board of Directors

Lisa A. Bezanson- President

Robert F. Molloy III- Treasurer

Peter L. Walters- Director

Jessica M. Johnson- Director

ACAM Staff

Kevin Tocci- Executive Director

Ian Deming- Lead Producer

David Bowen- Producer

Matt Lyons- Producer

Matt Nelson- Producer

Paul Watson- Producer

ACAM Interns

Justin Feterowski Quin Graham Jill Groom Jameson Gagnon Liam Mennella

Mike O'Leary Chris Pinola Jack Regan Bekah Salah

And a welcome to our newest interns: Aiden & Nathan Calcano De Silva, Miguel De Souza, Drew Flaherty, and Gabe Garcia. We look forward to seeing your productions!

If you are interested in internship opportunities with ACAM, click here!

Thank you to Coach Kel for his 50 years of coaching Green Wave football. You can see our coverage of the annual Thanksgiving game, and tributes to Coach Kel on our youtube page and on the education channel.

THE GIG SHOW

Uh-Oh! Politics

Thank you to the hardworking students at Abington High School who have organized events, volunteered, and dedicated their time and effort to causes that make Abington brighter and better. On the public channel and our Youtube page, you can find our coverage of many events held at the Council on Aging, including a Veteran's Day Luncheon, Annie's Kindness Blankets, and the Giving Tree Project.

Volunteer Today

We are able to produce this new content and provide local coverage because of the assistance of our interns and volunteers. We have training available at our studio for anyone who is passionate about the community and wants to be a part of the Abington CAM team. We want to create content that speaks to your interests, and the interests of the Abington community. If you have an idea for a show that you want to see, want to work on, or want to create, we would love to hear from you.

Visit us at abingtoncam.tv and become a member today!

